Module 6: Essential Laws: Class #2

THE LAW OF DELIBERATE CREATION:

That what you are thinking you begin to That what you are thinking and easier
That what you are consistently thinking and feeling — you
THE ADVERSARY OF DELIBERATE CREATION
Your clients must realize that, in the event that they do not take into account the Law of Deliberate Creation, they might as well be running on subject in the past. Keep focused and declare what you really want for yourself through your and let THAT be for now. Because when you are giving your attention to the manifestation of what , instead of what you, then you are holding yourself back from the things you say you want. You can't move to something else if the manifestation of what, has the majority of your attention.

You have to get excited about your own vibration and be proud of the vibration you're offering. And remember, others only have access to the vibration you offer. And if your vibration is in place, even if the hasn't caught up with it, you're offering a powerfully wonderful example! And what could be better than having a coach who can offer an example of a really positive attitude under the same circumstance as your clients? Because that is exactly what they would be asking of you – to have taken the journey too.

APPLYING THE LAW OF DELIBERATE INTENTION

So, you're coaching a client and he/she has a serious issue. What are your two main points of focus with this client?
